4 Plaintiff,

6 CRIMINAL 07-290 (PG)

7 [89] NORBERTO PACHECO-RIVERA,

9 MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
10 RE: RULE 11 PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

11 I. Procedural Background

12 On July 24, 2007, a grand jury returned a three-count indictment against Norberto Pacheco-13 Rivera (hereinafter referred to as "defendant"), and ninety-four other individuals. (Docket No.2.) The 14 defendant has agreed to plead guilty to count one of the indictment. Count one charges that beginning 15 in or about January 2003 and continuing up to and until the return of the instant indictment, in the 16 District of Puerto Rico and within the jurisdiction of this court Norberto Pacheco-Rivera and others
17 did knowingly and intentionally conspire with each others known and unknown to the grand jury to 18 commit and offense against the United States, that is to possess with intent to distribute one (1)
19 kilogram or more of heroin, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; fifty (50) grams or more
20 of cocaine base ("crack"), a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance, and one thousand (1,000)
21 kilograms or more of marihuana, a Schedule I Controlled Substance, within the Dr. Pila Pulic Housing
22 Project; Ponce Housing Public Housing Project; El Puente (located across the street from the Dr. Pila 23 Public Housing Project); Acueducto Street; El Tuque Ward; El Almacén (located at Virtud Street);
24 Betances Street; José M. Gándara Public Housing Project; Portugués Public Housing Project; Los
25 Rosales Public Housing Project; Ernesto Ramos Antonini Public Housing Project ("Pámpanos");
26 Bélgica Ward; Hortaliza Sector at Coto Laurel Ward; Palmarejo Sector at Coto Laurel Ward; Borinquen
27 Ward; Las Martínez Alley at La Cantera Sector; Puerto Viejo at the Ponce Beach Area; La Coroza
28 Ward, and Las Vallas Sector at Maraguez Ward, all the above located in the Municipality of Ponce,

1 Puerto Rico, and the drug distribution points located at Sabana Llana Ward, La Plena Ward and Los

3 States Code, Sections 841(a)(1), 846, and 860.

4

5 II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

6 On March 24, 2009, while assisted by Jorge L. Armenteros-Chervoni, Esq., the defendant, by 7 consent, appeared before the undersigned in order to change his previous not guilty plea to a plea of 8 guilty as to count one of the indictment.

9 In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing being held and was 10 advised of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries were to be conducted
11 under oath and that it was expected that his answers would be truthful; (c) the potential consequences
12 of lying under oath (such as a perjury charge); and (d) his right to have the change of plea proceedings 13 presided by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was also explained the 14 differences between the appointment and functions of the two. The defendant consented to proceed 15 before the undersigned magistrate judge.

16 III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

17 A. Rule 11(c)(1) Requirements

18 Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of 19 guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of 20 guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads 21 guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns 22 in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47
F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

23 United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

24 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

25 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant was advised of his 26 right:

27 1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the government who has the 28 burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

2 2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no adverse inference could be made in relation
3 to his decision not to testify.

4 3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would be entitled to see and 5 cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on his behalf, and challenge the 6 government's evidence.

7 4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which would have to be
8 convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means of admissible evidence.

9 5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

10 Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his speaking with his 11 attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully understood his rights, it is determined 12 that defendant is aware of his constitutional rights.

13 C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

14 Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised of the consequences
15 of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon having his 16 guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be giving up the above rights and will be convicted solely on 17 his statement that he is guilty.

18 In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and he understood that if convicted
19 on count one he will face a term of imprisonment of not less than ten years and not more than life
20 imprisonment, a fine not to exceed eight million dollars ($8,000,000), and a term of supervised release
21 of at least ten (10) years. The defendant was explained what the supervised release term means and was 22 also made aware that the court must impose a mandatory penalty assessment of one hundred dollars
23 ($100) per offense pursuant Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a).

24 The defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the court to decide
25 in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term and fine were to be imposed upon 26 him, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea for that reason alone. Furthermore, the defendant was 27 admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty he would not be allowed later on to withdraw his plea
28 because he eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed, and that if he violates the conditions

1 of supervised release, that privilege could be revoked and he could be required to serve an additional
2 term of imprisonment. He was also explained that parole has been abolished. The defendant
3 understood this.
4

5 D. Plea Agreement¹

6 The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed by the 7 government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the record. Defendant was 8 clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

- 9 1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court.
- 10 2. The plea agreement is an agreement between the defendant, defense counsel and the 11 attorney for the government which is presented as a recommendation to the court in regards to the 12 applicable sentencing adjustments and guidelines, which are advisory.
- 13 3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated sentencing 14 guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the sentencing court.
- 15 4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation contained therein, the 16 sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea agreement and impose any sentence up to the 17 maximum possible penalty prescribed by statute.

18 Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

19 E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

20 The government presented a proffer of its evidence consistent with the version of facts of the 21 plea agreement with which the defendant concurred. Defendant also acknowledged that he participated
22 in the conspiracy within a 1,000 feet of the Dr. Pila Public Housing Project for his own financial gain
23 and profit, and that he did so willingly and aware of what he was doing. Accordingly, it is determined 24 that there is a basis in fact and evidence to establish all the elements of the offense charged.

25
27
28 ¹ "Plea agreement" refers to the agreement and its supplement.

2
F. Voluntariness3
The defendant accepted that no threats had been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he 4
did not feel pressured to plead guilty.5
G. Special Warnings6
The defendant was explained, and he understood, that if the court accepts the plea agreement
7
and sentences him according to its terms and conditions, he will be surrendering his right to appeal the 8
sentence and judgment in this case.9
IV. Conclusion10
The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, Federal Rules of 11
Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to count one of the indictment. After cautioning 12
and examining the defendant under oath and in open court, concerning each of the subject matters 13
mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the preceding sections, I find that defendant Norberto Pacheco-14
Rivera is competent to enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the 15
maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charge is supported by the 16 government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the offense charged, and has done so in an 17 intelligent and voluntary manner with full knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea. Therefore, 18
I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant and that the defendant be adjudged 19
guilty as to count one of the indictment.20
This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Rule 72(d) 21 of the Local Rules of Court. Any objections to the same must be specific and must be filed with the 22
Clerk of Court within ten (10) days of its receipt. Rule 72(d), Local Rules of Court; Fed. R. Civ. P.
23
72(b). Failure to timely file specific objections to the report and recommendation is a waiver of the 24
right to review by the district court. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F.2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).25
